Outback Steakhouse Blimp Visits Space Coast Regional Airport

TITUSVILLE, Fla. (November 23, 2004) – The Outback Steakhouse blimp will take off from Space Coast Regional Airport today around noon, making its way to the T.D. Waterhouse Center in Orlando for Jimmy Buffett's 'Surviving the Storm' hurricane relief benefit concert. The blimp will circle the T.D. Waterhouse Center until the concert begins at 8 p.m.

The Outback Steakhouse blimp will remain at the Space Coast Regional Airport until Friday. The public is welcome to view the blimp from Challenger Drive at the Space Coast Regional Airport. Members of the press should contact Scott C. Carr, C.M., interim executive director of the Titusville-Cocoa Airport Authority, at (321) 267-8780, ext. 203 to arrange a visit.
